Conference Objective

Point-of-care testing as a key tool for ending the global epidemic of infectious disease to advance global and regional strategies for disease elimination (for example, HIV/AIDS, viral hepatitis, cervical cancer, sexually transmitted infections, tuberculosis, malaria, antimicrobial resistance, and other key infections) the conference will cover:

- Innovative point-of-care testing strategies to enhance early diagnosis, linkage to care, and treatment (including rapid tests, molecular tests, and self-testing)
- Enhanced integration of point-of-care testing for multiple infectious diseases (including triple-elimination of HIV, hepatitis B virus, and syphilis)
- Enhanced implementation of point-of-care testing (including understanding what works, where, and why)
- Reducing antibiotic overuse and improving antimicrobial resistance stewardship
- Engagement of affected communities, civil society organizations, and public and private care providers (including community-led and community-centred models of point-of-care testing)
- Political advocacy, policy change, and supportive health systems
- Strategies for monitoring and evaluating the impact of point-of-care testing on health outcomes
- Multidisciplinary research to optimize development, implementation, and impact of point-of-care tests on health outcomes
- Development of technologies that are innovative and affordable
- Cost-effectiveness and cost-benefit of scaling-up point-of-care testing, including ensuring adequate resourcing and access to affordable services
- The conference will consider the implementation of point-of-care testing in diverse settings, including but not limited to the community, community-led services, Indigenous-led services, primary care clinics, antenatal care clinics, women's health clinics, HIV and sexual health clinics, drug treatment clinics, needle/syringe programs, mental health clinics, refugee/migrant health services, mobile health clinics, prisons and tertiary hospital-based care.

About ASHM

Our purpose

ASHM is a peak organisation of health professionals in Australia, New Zealand and the Asia and Pacific Region who work in HIV, viral hepatitis and sexually transmissible infections. ASHM draws on its experience and expertise – through education and training; policy and advocacy; direct action and leadership – to support the health workforce and to contribute to the sector, domestically and internationally.

Who we are

ASHM is a professional, not-for-profit, member-based organisation. It supports its members, sector partners and collaborators to generate knowledge and action in clinical management and research, education, policy and advocacy in Australasia and internationally. It is committed to quality improvement, and its products and services are sought after by governments, members, health care workers and affected people. ASHM's dedicated membership, high calibre staff and commitment to partnership assure its effectiveness in achieving its mission.

How we work

ASHM works collaboratively and in partnership to prevent HIV, viral hepatitis and STIs, and to preserve and protect the health of those living with these infections. It aims to function as a cohesive and inclusive group of professionals, advancing its vision in a skilled, informed, compassionate and appropriate way.

Our values

ASHM is committed to the principles of the Ottawa Charter for Health Promotion and Jakarta Declaration on Leading Health Promotion into the 21st Century, as well as the highest standards of ethical conduct as practised by the medical, scientific and health care professions.

Our Commitment

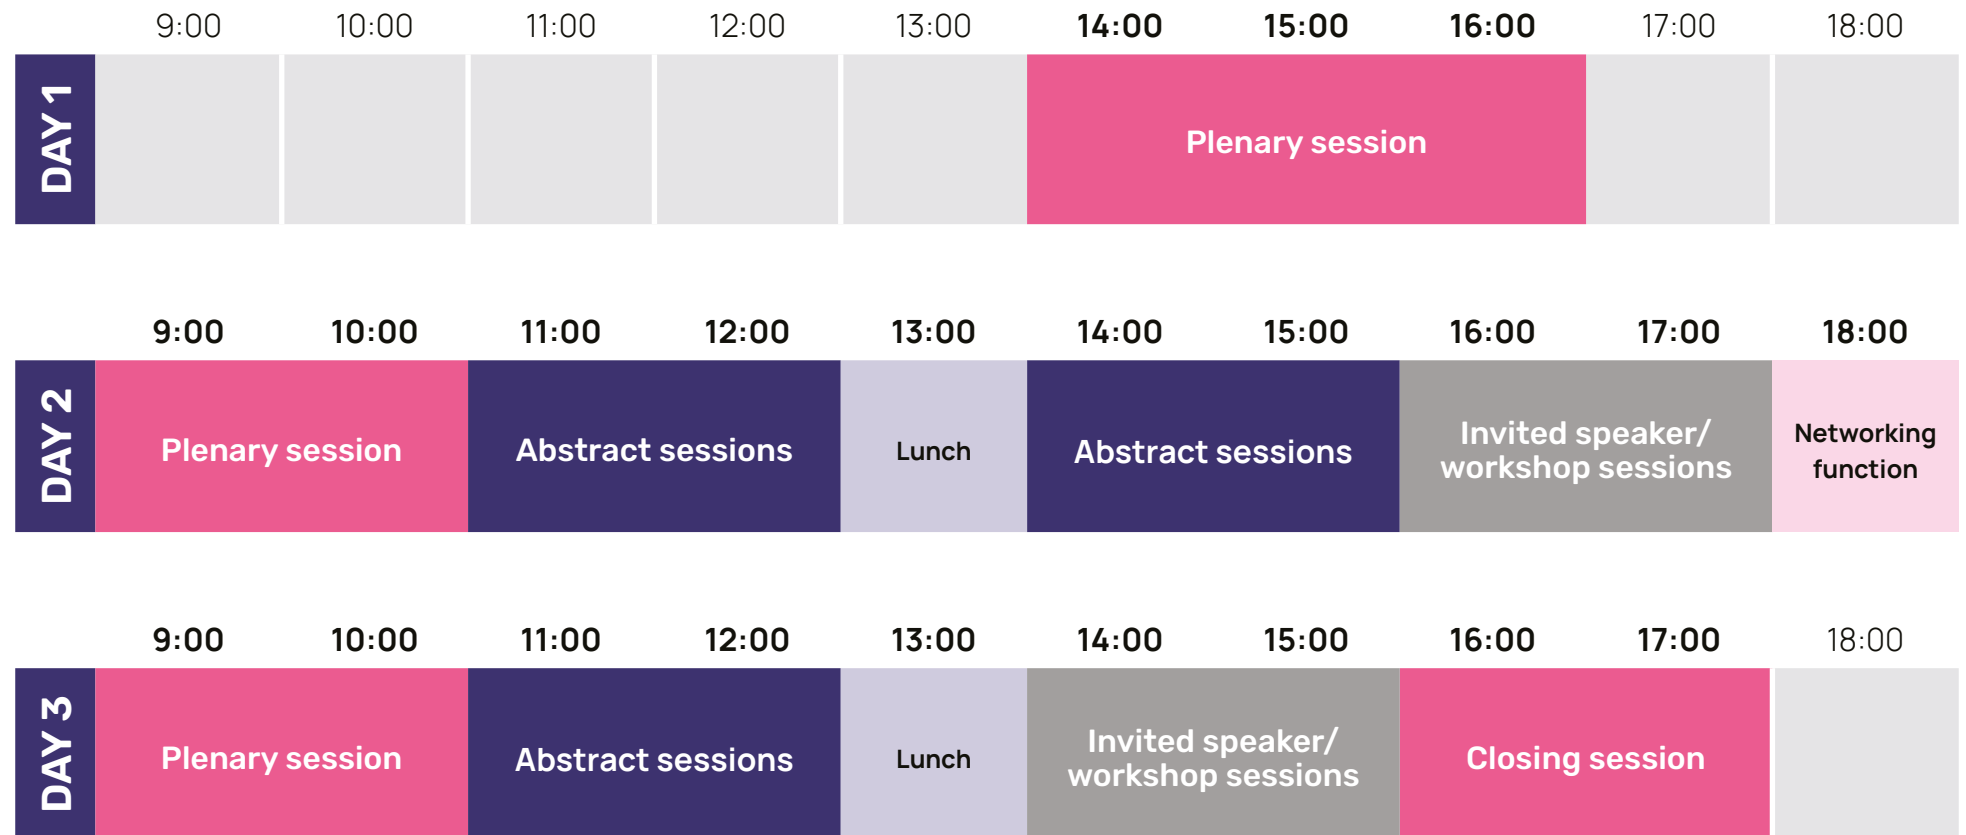

ASHM is committed to continual quality improvement and working in ways that:

- support collaboration, partnership and cooperation
- reflect best practice in management and service delivery
- are informed by the latest scientific, clinical, health and policy research
- maintain transparency, industrial fairness and democratic decision-making
- strengthen ties with infected and affected populations
- respect cultural differences and diversity
- respect privacy and confidentiality, and
- redress social inequities

ASHM is a signatory to the Code of Conduct for Australian aid and development agencies, which is administered by the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID).

Educational Opportunities

Educational Satellite Symposium

$8,000 excl GST
($5,000 excl GST for Gold Sponsors)

Opportunity to host an Educational Satellite Symposium within the conference program. The session will allow you to fully engage your target audience with content put together by your company.

Package includes:

- Notification of the Symposium in the marketing of the conference program.
- 1 x conference app notification
- Listing of the symposium in the conference program and associated events page of the conference website and app
- 2 x banners to be provided by sponsor.
- Limited room layout changes can be made (additional cost may be incurred)
- Content to be developed by the sponsor with approval by the Congress Scientific Committee
- Conference room hire and basic audio visual equipment provided (if the session is run at the conference venue)

Educational Satellite Symposium Guidelines:

- Time slots for the symposium: a breakfast, evening or lunch symposium. Duration of session depends on allocated time in the program.
- Costs incurred above the room hire and basic audio-visual are at the sponsor's expense.
- All logistical requirements are to be organised through ASHM Conference & Events Division. No external event companies are to be engaged.
- There is limited time for additional room set ups. Should additional AV be required we require our AV Technical Director to be used in order to ensure set ups are appropriate to the conference requirements and time frame available.
- Satellites must ensure there is appropriate gender representation. Representation of all genders must be present and where possible balanced.
- The content of the symposium will be the responsibility of the sponsor and can in no way be seen to be endorsed by the committee (the committee do have content approval rights). The committee do highly recommend you include consumer representatives in your session to ensure affected communities have a voice and are part of the solution
- The sponsor is to consult with the secretariat on the content already planned in the program and communicate as soon as topics are suggested to ensure little duplication with the main conference program.
- It is recommended content of your symposium be developed prior to communications regarding the early bird registration deadline to increase the number of delegates preregistering for your educational session. Early bird deadline: Sunday 23 March 2025
- Approval is to be requested by the sponsor from the conference organiser to take the satellite session to an offsite venue
- All costs and logistics associated with an offsite satellite session will be organised and be at the expense of the sponsor
- If the satellite is held at the conference venue, catering can be organised by the conference secretariat, however, all catering costs are at the sponsor's expense
- Registrations for all satellite sessions (held at conference venue or offsite) will be open to all delegates and managed via the online conference registration system.
