

APSAD 2021 Virtual Conference Scholarship Opportunities

We are pleased to announce there are 22 scholarship opportunities available for the 40th Annual APSAD Conference on Alcohol and other Drugs. We will be offering a number of virtual scholarships for First Peoples (Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islander, Māori, and Pasifika), community workers, people with lived experience, peer workers, researchers, practitioners, program workers, and policymakers.

The deadline for all scholarship applications is 11:59pm AEST on Tuesday 2nd November 2021.

A full scholarship will include conference registration, and extra resources to support participation. Before applying, please ensure you have read the selection criteria.

Applications are to be a maximum of 2-pages (Arial 11, single spaced).

SELECTION CRITERIA

1. How did you become interested in the health of people who use alcohol, tobacco and other drugs?
2. Are you working/volunteering in the field? If so, please describe your work, including how long you have been doing it, and any past relevant work/volunteer work
3. Please explain why attending this conference is important to you.
4. What do you hope to learn at APSAD 2021?
5. Provide a brief outline, including examples, of how you will transfer the knowledge you learn at the conference to other healthcare providers/ program managers/ policy makers/ researchers/ people with lived experience and/or to your community?
6. Why are you in need of a scholarship to attend the conference?

Thanks to our Scholarship Sponsor:

