

Scholarship Criteria Scoring

	Very Good Score 5	Good Score 4	Average Score 3	Below Average Score 2	Poor Score 1
AP SAD Membership Status	Yes, the applicant is a current APSAD member	-	-	-	No, the applicant is not an APSAD member
Are you working / volunteering in the field? If so, please describe your work, including how long you have been doing it, and any past relevant work/volunteer work Max 300 words	The person is clearly doing important work focused on AOD policy /practice /research, or enhancing the health of people who inject drugs, and they have done an excellent job at clearly articulating why attending this conference is important to them.	The person is clearly doing work focused on AOD policy /practice /research, or enhancing the health of people who inject drugs, and they have done a good job at clearly articulating why attending this conference is important to them.	The person is doing some work focused on AOD policy /practice /research, or enhancing the health of people who inject drugs, but they have could have done a better job clearly highlighting why attending this conference is important to them.	It is not clear how much work this person is doing with respect to AOD policy /practice /research, or enhancing the health of people who inject drugs, and they have could have done a better job clearly highlighting why attending this conference is important to them.	The person did not do a good job at clearly highlighting their role in their organisation and what they are specifically doing to AOD policy /practice/ research, or enhance the health of people who inject drugs. They did not do a very good job at clearly indicating why attending this conference is important to them.
What do you hope to learn at APSAD Canberra 2024? Max 200 words	The applicant has clearly outlined and articulated well what they would like to learn at APSAD Canberra 2024 and what their objective for attending the conference are.	The applicant has described what they would like to learn at APSAD Canberra 2024 and has a good idea of what their objectives for the conference are.	The applicant has some idea of what they would like to learn at APSAD Canberra 2024, but they could have provided more detail and had a better idea of what their objectives are.	The applicant has not really explained what they would like to achieve from their attendance at APSAD Canberra 2024 and don't appear to have a clear idea of their objectives.	The applicant has not indicated what they would like to learn at APSAD Canberra 2024 and has no clear objectives for their participation.
Will your organisation fund your attendance if you are not successful in obtaining a scholarship?	The applicant will not receive funding from their organisation and will not be able to attend the conference without a scholarship.	-	The applicant will receive partial funding from their organisation and will likely attend the conference without a scholarship.	-	The applicant will receive full funding from their organisation to attend the conference and does not need a scholarship to attend.
Applicants must reside in Australia or New Zealand	Yes, the applicant resides in Aus or NZ.	-	The applicant does not live in Australia or New Zealand but is based at a university or institution in Aus or NZ.	-	No, the applicant does not reside in Aus or NZ.