

Exporting might be your next step in your business development. Emma from Exporter Regulatory Advice Service (ERAS) MPI will be giving an overview on food and fibre exports, share some tips on what to consider when exporting alcoholic beverages, and advice on how ERAS can help. The presentation will include useful links which you will be able to refer to after the conference.