

Larissa will be presenting a New Zealand industry overview of the Spirits market. As consumers reduced their alcohol consumption during these economic times, it presents a challenge for growth. Understand what is currently driving growth and how consumer engage with the category. Learn about what motivates consumers to purchase Spirits and leverage the learnings to build your brand strategies for future growth.