Message from Distilled Spirits Aotearoa and Spirits New Zealand

This is the fourth year of the New Zealand Spirits Awards, and it has been an outstanding success. Both international and local distillers continue to recognise the value of New Zealand's most comprehensive spirits competition, and as a result we have seen the number of entries increase by 27% since last year. International producers use the Awards to gain local recognition and support the awareness of the industry as a whole, thereby increasing sales. Local spirits can benchmark themselves against competitors and often get the first comprehensive feedback on their new products. Consumers can benefit from knowing their favourite New Zealand-born spirit is aligned with global quality. This year we increased the number of categories from seven to 15; with whisky and gin expanding to reflect the complexities within these categories. The number of entries from gin alone increased from 145 last year to 235, and of those 185 were locally produced.

The success of the New Zealand spirits industry benefits a far wider spectrum than just our distillers - our supporting industries join us in our growth. We have had a record number of sponsors this year, generous in their support and sharing our passion for spirits. Our pool of talented judges has also become a close family, clearing their diaries to ensure they are available for the three days of intensive sensory work-out. This year we established a partnership with NZ School of Wines and Spirits (supported by WSET), as part of our shared commitment to advance education and training in spirits. Judges, distillers, restaurant and bar staff alike will benefit from formal alcohol beverage qualifications and uplift the industry.

We are extremely proud to bring you this latest round of world class medal winning spirits available on the New Zealand market.

Message From the Head Judges

It is a particularly humbling honour to be asked to judge the work of distillers and artisans who deeply care about their craft. As judges we want to celebrate, advocate and encourage the highest quality in spirits, both here in New Zealand and around the world. The diverse team of people who gave of their experience, energy and time to help judge the awards this year, reflect the depth and passion of our growing industry. In the fourth year of the NZ Spirits Awards, we celebrate the ongoing growth of New Zealand-made spirits, including the continued growth and exploration of diverse spirit categories and the largest ever New Zealand whisky portfolio. We were once again impressed and inspired by the meticulous spirits presented and the adventurous exploration of flavour. Once again we acknowledge the efforts of Distilled Spirits Aotearoa and Spirits NZ who support the industry throughout the year.

We know that the rising tide will lift all boats as we continue to work together to educate, encourage and advocate for New Zealanders to enjoy beautiful spirits.
