

Program

830	Registration and Arrival Tea/Coffee
855 -905	Welcome to Country –
905-915	Welcome address Dr Paul Craven, Executive Director, Children, Young People & Families Hunter New England LHD
915-955	The Lucy Letby Case: What have we learned? Dr Deborah Harris The Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand
955 - 1035	Neonatal Child protection Case Indigenous Families in the NICU Helen Bell Child Protection Clinical Nurse Consultant, John Hunter Children's Hospital
1035 - 1100	Morning Tea
1100 - 1140	Artificial Intelligence – Coming to a NICU near you! Saba Akbar Australian Institute of Health Innovation, Faculty of Medicine, Macquarie University
1140 - 1220	From urgency to precision – genetics in the NICU and post NICU care Dr Xiang Goh Clinical Geneticist, University of New South Wales
1220 - 1300	First, do no harm – PVC and Neonates Justine Parsons Clinical Nurse Consultant NICU John Hunter Children's Hospital
1300 -1400	Lunch
1400 - 1440	Matthew's Journey Adam Geosits and Jess Hay Parents and Co-Directors of EzyAid
1440 - 1520	Indigenous Families in the NICU Dr Luke Wakely and Jessica Bennett Senior Lecturer, University of Newcastle Department of Rural Health
1520 - 1600	Kids ECMO Retrieval Service Ania Berent Clinical Nurse Consultant, The Children's Hospital at Westmead
1600 - 1615	Closing Remarks Natalie Butchard, Nurse Manager NICU, John Hunter Children's Hospital