

2023 AISSA GOVERNANCE CONFERENCE: EMPOWERING GREAT GOVERNANCE IN YOUR SCHOOL

FOR PRINCIPALS, BOARD CHAIRS AND BOARD MEMBERS

STAMFORD GRAND, GLENELG | 17 MARCH 2023

2023 AISSA GOVERNANCE CONFERENCE: Empowering Great Governance in Your School

For Principals, Board Chairs and Board Members
Stamford Grand Glenelg, Adelaide | Friday 17 March 2023

PROGRAM
8.00am	Registration Collect your name badge, tea and coffee available
9.00 am	Welcome and Introductions Louka Parry, The Learning Future, Conference Facilitator
9.15 am	Welcome to Country Uncle John Lochowiak
9.30 am	Welcome to the AISSA Chief Executive Anne Dunstan Insights and Perspectives: An interview with Louka Parry Anne Dunstan & Louka Parry
10.00 am	School Choice and Enrolments David O'Loughlin, Chief Executive Officer kwpk This session will unpack the AISSA research undertaken by kwpk and Kantar, focusing on understanding the key barriers preventing South Australian parents from sending their primary and secondary aged children to an independent school. The findings explore current perceptions of the independent school sector, the key factors driving school choice, and the specific attitudes preventing parents from sending their child to an independent school.
10.45 am	Morning tea
11.15 am	Workshopping Session – School Choice and Enrolments David O'Loughlin & Louka Parry
12.15 pm	Lunch
1.00 pm	Principal Wellbeing: What do boards need to know? Emeritus Professor Donna Cross, University of Western Australia Principal wellbeing is crucial to the long-term sustainability of the school and the creation of a positive school culture. This session will explore what boards need to anticipate and action in order to support principals to be their best.
2.00 pm	Workshopping Session – Principal Wellbeing: What do boards need to know? Emeritus Professor Donna Cross & Louka Parry
2.45 pm	Plenary: Future Global Education Trends: Where to next for education? Anthony Mackay AM
3.15 pm	Thank You Anne Dunstan
3.30 pm	Close