Teaching and Learning SIG meeting

Friday 12 February 15:00 - 16:00 (AEDT)

Dr Mieke Witsel

The Scholarship of Teaching

Hosted by Dr Mieke Witsel and Dr Niki Macionis, Co-chairs, Teaching and Learning SIG

This session will propose and promote three ventures designed to support and bolster participants' levels of achievement in the Scholarship of Teaching. Particularly, the focus will be on engagement with the contributions of others; and communication and dissemination of aspects of practice and theoretical ideas about teaching.

The session will give participants opportunities to connect cross-institutionally and enhance their Teaching and Learning portfolio.

1. Talking about Teaching zoom sessions (once every six weeks).
2. Cross-institutional Practical Pointers series
3. SoTL support and collaborative mentoring: to increase evidence of SoTL endeavours and publications (e.g. planning for future joint research/projects).

AGENDA

- 15.00-15.15 Welcome by Chairs and outline for session presenting the three Ventures; including (longer term) strategic aims and benefits for participants
- 15.15-15.35 Discussion and refinement of Ventures in break-out rooms using guided questions
- 15.35-15.50 Report back from each group
- 15.50-16.00 Closing and take-aways

FOR THOSE WHO ARE NEW TO CAUTHE...

The Teaching and Learning Special Interest Group (SIG) aims to provide a forum for CAUTHE members to discuss and engage in professional development activities related to tourism, hospitality and events education in the rapidly changing higher education environment. Current interests and themes include:

- Curriculum development including design and delivery, assessment, student experience
- Student learning including influences, practices, pathways and spaces
- The impacts and implications of higher education policy
- Globalisation and internationalisation in higher education
- Professional learning, work experience and industry engagement
- The balance between liberal/social science education and vocational education
- Tourism, hospitality and events education futures
