

CAUTHE 2021 CONFERENCE ONLINE

TRANSFORMATIONS IN UNCERTAIN TIMES: FUTURE
PERFECT IN TOURISM, HOSPITALITY AND EVENTS

9-12 February | #cauthe2021 | We're expecting you!

CALL FOR PAPERS

CONFERENCE TRACK

TOURISM GEOGRAPHIES AND TOURISM ECONOMICS

Track chairs

- Haiyan Song, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University
- Joseph M. Cheer, Center for Tourism Research, Wakayama University
- Elaine Yang, Griffith University

Track description

The Tourism Geographies & Tourism Economics (TG & TE) track seeks to coalesce papers that accentuate broad multi-disciplinary perspectives linking tourism to pertinent geography and economics frameworks. The overarching aim is to enable papers presented in this track to develop towards publication. Selected papers from this track will be invited to submit to a special issue of Tourism Economics – “Post COVID-19 Tourism Economics and Economic Geographies Research in Australasia”.

Key topic areas and themes

Tourism Geographies

- People, Place and Space: Host and Guest Encounters
- Resilience - Social, Ecological and Economic Resilience to Change

Tourism Economics

- Tourism Demand Modelling and Forecasting amid COVID-19*
- Social, Economic and Environmental Impacts of COVID-19* – Measurements, Methods and Implications

\ Not exclusively COVID-19 related only and may include emphases on other shock*

Key dates

- Full paper submission: 1 October 2020
- Working paper submission: 31 October 2020

For complete track list see CAUTHE 2021 Track Descriptions and Chairs

For more information see CAUTHE2021 Conference

Publication opportunity for papers presented at CAUTHE 2021 Conference Online
*Tourism Economics Special Issue: Post COVID-19 Tourism Economics and Economic Geographies
Research in Australasia*

Papers presented in this track will have an opportunity to be published as a special issue in Tourism Economics (<https://journals.sagepub.com/home/teu>). This special issue aims to explore new trends and issues in tourism economics and economic geographies in Australasia in the post COVID-19 era. Selected papers submitted to and presented at CAUTHE 2021 Conference Online Tourism Geographies and Tourism Economics track with an emphasis on the economic implications of COVID-19 on tourism in Australasia will be invited to submit to this special issue. Papers should combine empirical and theoretical insights that make a contribution to knowledge.

Suggested topics must have a focus on tourism economics or economic geographies perspectives including but not limited to the following:

- Tourism demand forecasting amid COVID-19
- Economic Impact Assessment of COVID-19 on the destination economy
- Socio-economic policy research amid COVID-19
- Tourism supply chain reconfiguration after COVID-19
- Path dependencies in tourism destinations
- Economic geographies of tourism
- Political economy analyses of tourism

Tourism Economics

Published bimonthly from SAGE, is an international peer reviewed journal that publishes the latest, quality research covering the business aspects of tourism in the wider context. Tourism Economics is SSCI-indexed.

Key dates

- Notification of invitation*: 30 November 2020
- Full paper submissions to special issue: 1 February 2021
- Revisions and decisions: May – September 2021
- Publication: End of 2021

*A full or working paper must be submitted to and presented at CAUTHE 2021 Conference Online in order to be considered for the special issue. Invited papers for submission to the special issue of Tourism Economics will go through the normal peer review process.

