G&B Lawyers is a Sydney city firm offering specialised legal services in environmental law, town-planning and project management.

The team at G&B Lawyers provides strategic advice on all aspects of town-planning, local government and environmental law. We focus on providing high quality advice tailored to suit the unique needs of each project to provide the best possible outcome for our clients.

Kim advises clients on a wide range of planning and environment related matters, including merit appeals and judicial reviews in the Land & Environment Court, contaminated land legislation, compulsory land acquisitions and valuation disputes. Kim is also the author of the Lexis Nexis legal publication entitled 'Annotations to the NSW Land and Environment Court Act & Rules'.

Nathan is a corporate and litigation partner with over 10 years experience in corporate law, including financial services, investment management, funds and managed investment schemes, financial products, regulatory developments and commercial litigation.

Our staff have advised private sector clients on environment and planning issues associated with large-scale property transactions and development projects, including negotiating transaction documents (including planning and other development contribution agreements), managing contaminated land disputes, master planning and development approvals.
