

2023 Australasian Mangrove and Saltmarsh Network Conference

14-17 November

The University of Adelaide, North Terrace Campus

Sponsorship Prospectus

The AMSN Conference Committee invites you to sponsor the 2023 Australasian Mangrove and Saltmarsh Network Conference to be held on Tuesday 14 to Friday 17 November 2023 at The University of Adelaide, South Australia.

The Australasian Mangrove and Saltmarsh Network is an informal independent network for people and organisations concerned about mangrove and saltmarsh tidal wetland habitats around Australia and Australasia generally.

The 2023 Australasian Mangrove and Saltmarsh Network Conference provides a unique opportunity to showcase current trends in coastal wetland management. The conference is attended by scientists, managers, educators and policy makers, providing numerous networking opportunities to form collaborative partnerships that will benefit your organisation in the future.

We kindly request your organisation consider sponsoring the upcoming AMSN conference as it provides an opportunity to showcase your current coastal wetland management and associated education programs.

There are several sponsorship levels available that will provide opportunities for raising awareness of your organisation's activities. Your sponsorship will be secured by receipt of payment on a first come, first serve basis. All prices in this document are in Australian Dollars and exclude GST.

Thematic sessions for the conference include, but are not limited to:

- Coastal conservation and restoration
