

AIJA Indigenous Youth Justice Conference

Panellist

Day 2 – Session 8: Bail Laws

Commissioner Meena Singh

Commissioner for Aboriginal Children and Young People

Meena Singh is a Yorta Yorta and Indian woman, born and living on the lands of the Kulin people. She has twenty years of experience in legal practice, systemic advocacy and policy, consulting and training.

She has worked in organisations such as Victorian Aboriginal Legal Service, Djirra, Victoria Legal Aid and the Human Rights Law Centre. A passionate learner and advocate, Meena draws on her personal identity and life experiences to inform her work. She is committed to bringing the voices of people historically excluded from decision and law making to the fore through storytelling and empowerment.