

Sophie Maltabarow

Principal Solicitor, New South Wales
Crown Solicitor's Office

Day 2 – Government Solicitors

Panel: Climate law and its impact on government decision making

10:00am - 11:00am

About Sophie Maltabarow

Sophie has 9 years of experience in administrative and constitutional law. She has an extensive background advising NSW and Commonwealth agencies on environmental law matters, including questions of statutory interpretation, administrative law challenges and bilateral agreements. Sophie has conducted litigation in the High Court, Supreme Court and NSW Civil and Administrative Tribunal and also spent time as Associate to the Honourable Justice Leeming in the NSW Court of Appeal.