

Elsa Merrick

Senior Solicitor Special Counsel, New South Wales Crown Solicitor's Office

Day 2 – Government Solicitors

Panel: Climate law and its impact on government decision making

10:00am – 11:00am

About Elsa Merrick

Elsa has over 4 years of experience in environment, planning and criminal law, and currently acts for NSW government clients in regulatory prosecutions, including in relation to environmental offences. Elsa has also worked on major infrastructure and building projects in the private and public sector. In 2021, she served as Tipstaff to the Honourable Justice John Robson at the NSW Land and Environment Court. She has also undertaken policy research on climate change mitigation issues at the Climate Change Authority and wrote an Honours thesis on governance issues associated with climate change.