

AIJA Indigenous Youth Justice Conference

Session Chair

Day 1 – Session 2: Brain Development and Intergenerational Trauma

Day 2 – Session 9: Girls in Custody

Her Honour Magistrate

Jacqueline Payne

Queensland Magistrates Court

Jacqui Payne was the first indigenous person to be appointed to the judiciary in Queensland, when she was appointed a magistrate some twenty three years ago. Her first job as an employed solicitor was at the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service. By the time of her appointment she had her own legal practice specialising in criminal defence work.
