

AIJA Indigenous Youth Justice Conference

Session Chair

Day 2 – Session 15: “Significance of culture to well-being, healing and rehabilitation”

Andrew Smith SC

Barrister

University Chambers

Andrew is a barrister admitted to practise at the NSW Bar. He was admitted as a solicitor of the Supreme Court of New South Wales in 2005. Andrew is a proud Wiradjuri man of the Tubba-Gah people.

Andrew has appeared in multiple jurisdictions including Federal and State superior and inferior courts of record and tribunals. He has a diverse practice which includes practising in the areas of bankruptcy, corporate insolvency, corporations law, commercial, equity and mortgages and security litigation.

Andrew is a part time Acting Commissioner of the Land and Environment Court of New South Wales and a Governor of the Law and Justice Foundation. He is also a member of the Judicial Commission of NSW Ngara Yura Committee. For a number of years, Andrew was a member and Deputy Chair of the NSW Bar Association First Nations Committee