

Dr Christopher Ward SC

6 St James Hall Chambers

Day 2 – Government Solicitors

Secrecy in Court: Questions of national security and public interest immunity

11:30am – 12:30pm

About Dr Christopher Ward SC

Dr Christopher Ward SC is a highly experienced and successful commercial advocate before trial courts, appellate courts and arbitral tribunals.

He has a diverse multidisciplinary and international practice as Senior Counsel and works in large commercial disputes and inquiries, international law, large corporate insolvency, employment disputes, all constitutional issues and administrative governmental disputes.

He is an internationally recognised expert in the fields of public and private international law where he has particular expertise in boundary disputes, foreign judgments, the law of the sea, aviation, resources and investor-state arbitral disputes.

He appears regularly in Australia and elsewhere as an advocate in cases which involve domestic and international law and accepts instructions in areas as diverse as human rights, maritime boundaries and diplomatic immunity. He is known globally for his extensive pro bono work in human rights and capital punishment cases.