About Russell Daily

Russell Daily was appointed as Law Complaints Officer by the Legal Practice Board of Western Australia and commenced on 10 February 2020.

Prior to this Russell spent over 13 years working in legal regulation and complaints handling at the Victorian Legal Services Board + Commissioner. During that time he spent periods acting as Commissioner and CEO, and most recently held the position of Director, Investigations.

Prior to this he worked at the WA Director of Public Prosecutions for 7 years as a State Prosecutor and Practice Manager, as well as previously working in various positions within the Justice portfolio.

He has had roles in Victoria with the Disciplinary Appeals Board for the Department of Education and Training, and with the HIV Case Advisory Committee with the Department of Health and Human Services.

During Russell's time in legal regulation in Victoria that state, along with NSW, began operating under the Legal Profession Uniform Law in July 2015. He worked with local stakeholders including the Law Institute of Victoria and the Victorian Bar, as well as with jurisdictions within and outside of Australia, and with the Uniform Law coordinating bodies being the Legal Services Council and Commissioner for Uniform Legal Services Regulation.
