

Merrilyn Williams

Manager Operations, Legal Profession Board of Tasmania

DAY 3 – NOVEMBER 10

Jurisdictional Update: Tasmania

3:45pm-3:55pm

About Merrilyn Williams

Merrilyn Williams is Manager Operations at the Legal Profession Board of Tasmania (LPBT). She was formerly LPBT's senior investigator. Merrilyn is a legal member of the Guardianship and Administration Board (Tas) and Mental Health Tribunal (Tas). She is also a committee member on the inaugural Law Society of Tasmania Wellbeing Committee (2021).

Merrilyn was admitted as a Barrister and Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Tasmania in 1994. She attained a BA.LLB from University of Tasmania (UTAS) in 1992 and gained a Master degree in Rehabilitation Counselling, School of Psychology (UTAS) in 2014.

Merrilyn has previously worked in private legal practice, mainly practicing in personal injuries litigation, and as the Senior Legal Officer with the Department of Justice, Mental Health Tribunal (Tas). She also has 20 years' experience as Managing Director of a family farming enterprise in south east Tasmania.

Hosted by