

Tony Song

Research Fellow, Law Society of NSW Future of Law and Innovation in the Profession (FLIP) research stream, School of Private and Commercial Law, UNSW Law and Justice

Day 1– The Legal Professional

Client Engagement: building trust online
12.00pm – 1.00pm

About Tony Song

Tony Song is a Research Fellow for the NSW Law Society's Future of Law and Innovation (FLIP) research stream at UNSW Law & Justice. Tony's research interest covers the impact of technology on the legal profession and across society, with a focus on AI, remote courts, the future of work, online trust, and web3. Tony is also a part-time trader of financial markets with certificates in the Wyckoff methodology of technical analysis.