2:45pm-3:45pm

About Natalie Neal

Natalie is a qualified lawyer and policy professional. She commenced her career as a personal injury lawyer specialising in workplace law and assisting victims of crime. From 2006, she has held a broad range of both operational and policy roles within the VLSB+C, from disciplinary complaint investigator to managing legal costs disputes to involvement in a variety of legislative and regulatory reform projects.

Natalie's latest project, the VLSB+C's independent review of CPD 'Getting the Point' and the 'VLSB+C's Legal Ethics Education Guidance for CPD providers' received wide and enthusiastic engagement from the profession as well as international interest.

This will be Natalie's 5th CORO.
