Implications of 9/11 – 20 years on: A Social Sciences Week Webinar

Speaker Bios

Randa Abdel Fattah

Randa Abdel-Fattah is a Palestinian Egyptian Muslim writer, former lawyer and Palestinian advocate. She is a DECRA research fellow in the Department of Sociology at Macquarie University. Her latest book is Coming of Age in the War on Terror.

Lloyd Cox

Lloyd Cox is a Lecturer in Politics and International Relations at Macquarie University, teaching mainly in the areas of American and Australian politics. His latest research focuses on nationalism, emotions and politics, with a particular emphasis on the United States and Australia. He recently published the book Nationalism: Themes, Theories and Controversies (Palgrave 2021).

Lavina Lee

Dr Lavina Lee is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of Politics and International Relations at Macquarie University, Sydney. She is the author of the book US Hegemony and International Legitimacy: Norms Power and Followership in the Wars on Iraq (Routledge, 2010), and has published numerous journal articles, book chapters, research reports and commentary on Indian foreign and security policy, nuclear proliferation, US foreign policy, maritime security in the Indo-Pacific, the Quad, and Chinese influence in South-East Asia. In 2020 Dr Lee was appointed to the Council of the Australian Strategic Policy Institute by the Defence Minister.
Vince Scappatura

Dr Vince Scappatura teaches Politics and International Relations at Macquarie University. His research interests include the intersection of Australian and US defence policies and the role of interest groups in Australian foreign policy making. He has recently published a book with Monash University Publishing titled The US Lobby and Australian Defence Policy.

Govand Azeez

Dr. Govand Khalid Azeez is a Lecturer in Politics and International Relations at Macquarie University, Sydney. He specialises in political philosophy (including epistemology and theories of subjectivity), political economy (focusing on Marxist/Neo-Marxist conceptualisations of class, social impact of changes in instruments of production and scientific know-how), and the politics and strategies of social transformation (including social movement and revolutions).