

IPDLN 2020 Conference Student Workshop Scholarships

Introduction

IPDLN 2020 is offering five Student Workshop Scholarships which will cover the cost of attending any Conference workshop or short course.

Eligibility

To be eligible students must be enrolled full-time.

Application and Assessment Process

Students interested in applying for an IPDLN 2020 Workshop Scholarship should complete and submit the attached form, along with proof of full-time student enrolment.

Note that full-time students who have already enrolled for an IPDLN 2020 workshop or short course are eligible to apply for the Student Workshop Scholarship. If successful, the fee that you have already paid will be refunded.

Applicants will be assessed on a brief statement on their interest in/benefit from attending their nominated workshop.

The email should be sent to Shanna Sheldrick (email shanna@premiereventconcepts.com.au) by 5pm Australian Eastern Daylight Saving time (UTC 06:00) on Friday 16 October 2020.

The successful scholarship winners will be notified by Wednesday 21 October 2020.
