

Sponsorship & Exhibition Proposal

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

The Australian Law Librarians' Association Ltd (ALLA) is delighted to announce that the 2022 Conference will be held from Wednesday, 24 August through to Friday, 26 August 2022 in Hobart, Tasmania at the Hotel Grand Chancellor Hobart.

We are proud to invite your organisation to participate as a sponsor and/or exhibitor in the 2022 Australian Law Librarians' Association National Conference (the Conference).

ABOUT ALLA

ALLA is a national not-for-profit association with over 500 members in all states and territories. The Association represents librarians and information professionals working in courts, universities, government departments, law firms and professional associations. The Conference is the key education and networking opportunity for law librarians to discuss issues and innovations in the legal information sector. We anticipate approximately 175 delegates and over 20 speakers from across Australia and overseas will be in attendance.

ALLA is a not for profit professional body with the following objectives:

- to promote and provide a national focus for law librarianship;
- to support the interests of law libraries, collections, and legal information services to both private and public legal organisations and communities;
- to promote a network for law librarians, provide forums for continuing education and advocate on behalf of the interests of legal libraries and librarians in Australia;
- to benefit members and enhance the status of the profession through the organisation of high quality meetings and Conferences;
- to communicate to members of the Association as a whole; to liaise with the member Divisions; to disseminate information among Divisions; and to foster a spirit of co- operation among members of the profession;
- the publication of information of interest to members, and the encouragement of bibliographical study and research in law and law librarianship;
- Members of the Association have access to continuing professional development, local networking events, publisher and vendor trials, a members only wiki with legal research Q&A, a national publishers' liaison, podcasts and a national network of experienced, enthusiastic and professional law librarians;
- to promote co-operation & collaboration, with related and relevant organisations & societies; and
- to encourage exposure to new and emerging technologies and tools which enhance and extend the profession of law librarianship.

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS (postponed from 2020)

ALLA has grown from modest beginnings with a group of law librarians who got together informally in Sydney in 1969 to a national organisation for law information professionals. The original ambition of ALLA in 1969 was to further the professional development of law librarians and this role continues today with a bi-annual conference, continuing professional development and opportunities for law librarians to share information and develop networks.

We look forward to celebrating our 50th birthday with our members, supporters and publishing friends in Hobart in 2022.

WHO ATTENDS?

Conference delegates include Association members and other legal and business library and information professionals. Participation is expected from a range of organisations including private law firms, government departments, universities, courts and commercial organisations. Attendees are drawn from all stages of their careers, an opportunity for them and you to communicate at an exciting event, aimed to invigorate and challenge the decision makers and strategists of today and tomorrow.

The Conference is widely promoted, nationally and internationally, attracting a range of quality speakers and presentations. We aim to use this biennial opportunity to gather and renew our efforts & energy to become stronger as professionals and as an industry, with an engaging program to build partnerships and advocate for our profession.

The content of the Conference will provide benefit for:

- Library Managers
- Knowledge Managers
- Librarians
- Library Technicians
- Library Assistants
- Knowledge Consultants
- Chief Information Officers
- Information Professionals
- Information Systems Professionals

The Conference is also promoted to fellow peak organisations such as the Australian Library and Information Association (ALIA), the International Association of Law Libraries, the British & Irish Association of Law Librarians, the American Association of Law Libraries, the Canadian Association of Law Libraries, Law Societies and Barristers' Associations.

WHY SPONSOR?

Participation in the Conference offers the following benefits for your organisation:

- An opportunity to promote and raise your profile with information professionals.
- A significant opportunity to meet with decision making buyers at a national level in one place.
- Access to varied networking opportunities with key decision makers.
- Exposure to a target audience in an environment conducive to information exchange that will promote mutually beneficial business outcomes.
- A forum to demonstrate your products and services and share details about your organisation.
