

Andy Fell
Founder, GiFT631

After almost 20 years of senior leadership roles in financial services, split across the UK and Australia, Andy left a highly successful career in 2017 to found GiFT631, a four pillared leadership, team and personal development business. GiFT631 operates internationally with 2 core locations in Australia/NZ and the UK.

As a coach, conference speaker, business consultant and facilitator of leadership/ talent development programmes, Andy's passion and expertise centres on helping people, teams and businesses move in the direction of their potential. He makes the complex simple and the simple compelling.

Andy prides himself on his sessions being practical, actionable, clear and experience based. He aims to inspire and ensure his audience leave with an enhanced sense of what to do AND how to do it. He shares habits, frameworks, routines and strategies that work for those who take action.

Given his breadth and depth of leadership experience, Andy clients include entrepreneurs, business owners and corporate leadership teams. However, Andy is as happy working with rising stars, new leaders and anyone with a passion for self-improvement.

For this reason he developed 'What Winners Do' - an opportunity for anyone regardless of age, experience and sector to access his success formula and develop a more intentional and purposeful approach to life and business.

Andy's self-development work is supported by the publication of his first book: 'The Rocking Chair Test - a step by step guide to becoming FutureYou.'

His work is also complemented by his YouTube channel: Andy Fell, GiFT631 where short, sharp video #giftbites are available to all, either to access or reinforce learnings.
