

Roz White

Director, White's IGA

Roz White is an award-winning business leader with over 30 years' experience, a charity volunteer and leading advocate for various industry groups. Roz is the co-owner of White's IGA Group & White's Commercial Property Group employing 500 people in the Sunshine Coast community.

Roz has held community leadership positions including board chair and is a mentor and regular speaker at trade and industry events. Roz is a current member the University of the Sunshine Coast Foundation Board and Chair of Sunshine Coast 2032, a past board director of Montrose Therapy & Respite Services, advisory member of the Queensland Community Foundation (Sunshine Coast), USC Business School External Academic Advisory Committee and Immediate Past President of the Sunshine Coast Business Women's Network. Roz is a passionate advocate for business and has led the IGA QNN State Board as Chair and is a previous member of the IGA National Council and Sunshine Coast Business Council.

Roz was recognised as the SCBWN Outstanding Business Woman of the Year in 2015 and named Owner/Entrepreneur Leader of the Year in 2016 by the Australian Institute of Management. Roz was inducted in the IGA Hall of Fame in 2017 as the first independent female, a prestigious honour and significant milestone for women in the supermarket industry. Roz was also a Telstra Business Woman of the Year finalist in 2019 and has been awarded multiple national and state industry retail excellence & community awards over the past 25 years.

