

Andrew Klein

MC / Speaker 2024

Andrew is one of Australia's leading Professional Conference MCs and a Pitching & Presentation Skills speaker, trainer and writer, working on conferences around the Asia-Pacific region as well as the US and South Africa.

A former corporate lawyer, Andrew quit the law in the late 90's due to a medical condition called 'extreme boredom' before starting up his own business as a corporate trainer and speaker.

Over the past 25 years Andrew has become one of this country's most engaged Conference MCs and brings his casual yet corporate style to all proceedings. He is well-known on the conference circuit for his revealing speaker introductions, his improvisational skills and ability to adapt to different audiences.

Apart from MC'ing, Andrew runs workshops and keynotes on Presentation Skills and Pitching for Business.

His clients include QBE, Westpac, AIA, Dymocks, NSW Rural Fire Service, RACGP, KPMG, Poolwerx, CPA (Australia) Auto One.....and his mother-in-law's bridge club.

Andrew's hobbies include shaving his head, walking his dog Pebbles and trying to convince his wife and 3 kids that he has a real job.
