

The Australian Podiatry Conference - Abstract Submission Terms and Conditions

By submitting an abstract you have agreed to the terms and conditions as set out below.

1. By submitting an abstract you agree to give us permission on behalf of all presenters if it is accepted for presentation, to publish, reproduce, distribute, display and store the abstract (submitted text only), together with author names, and biographies where supplied in different formats including print, electronic and digital forms .
2. The author is responsible for the accuracy of the abstract and should ensure that they have written entirely original work which does not infringe any copyright.
3. The corresponding author should ensure that all appropriate co-authors are included on the abstract and that the submission has been approved by all authors.
4. At least one author must be available to present the abstract if selected for the programme for either an oral or poster presentation.
5. All authors presenting at the conference must register and pay to attend the conference as a delegate. If the presenting author is not registered as a conference delegate, the abstract will be withdrawn. One (only) presenting author of an accepted abstract will receive discounted presenter registration fee. The authors will immediately notify the APodA events team if they are unable to present an abstract or if the presenting author is changed.
- 6.. All poster presentations should include funding and other acknowledgements where applicable.
7. You give us permission to photograph your oral presentation at the conference, which may be used on the APodA website.
8. Abstracts will be reviewed by a panel with the final decision being made by the scientific committee. Evaluation of the abstract is done on the standard of the content presented.
9. Acceptance of an abstract does not imply provision of travel, accommodation or registration for the conference, nor any other cost associated with preparation or presentation of the abstract, or any cost associated with attendance at the conference
