

COLLABORATING FOR OPTIMAL FRACTURE CARE

Organised by

Endorsed by

Society for Geriatric Medicine Singapore

Society of Rehabilitation Medicine (Singapore)

Saturday, 6th May 2023

2:00pm - 3:30pm

Hosted on zoom

REGISTER NOW

CME Points Awarded

Learning Objectives:

- Appraise the evidence behind fracture liaison service (FLS), importance and relevance to local services
- Elaborate on the role of multidisciplinary specialists and allied health professionals towards a sustainable FLS service
- Apply best practices and learnings from established FLS centers to support new FLS setups
- Formulate design improvement to FLS services in enhancing patient centricity
- Strengthening the service and network of post-fracture care between FLS centers in Singapore

Who Should Attend?

- Established FLS services in Singapore, aspiring FLS centers & teams
- Allied Health Practitioners
- General Physicians

Chairpersons

A/Prof Ang Seng Bin

A/Prof Ang Seng Bin is a Family Physician, Senior Consultant, Head of Menopause Unit of KK Women's and Children's Hospital. His research interests include osteoporosis, menopause, sexual health, healthcare innovations as well as dermatology. He is currently the President of Osteoporosis Society (Singapore).

Dr Joyce Koh

Dr Joyce Koh is a Senior Consultant with the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Singapore General Hospital. Her research interests include health Services research-value driven care, patient reported outcomes research, medtech-emerging novel technologies, osteoporosis and Aging.

Speakers

Dr Linsey Gani

Dr Linsey Gani is a senior consultant at the Department of Endocrinology at Changi General Hospital (CGH). She is the program director for the Eastern Community Health Outreach (ECHO) that works to provide chronic disease health screening to the eastern region in Singapore. She has also set up the Osteoporosis Liaison Service in CGH to provide secondary fracture prevention to patients admitted with fragility hip fracture. She currently holds a clinical senior lecturer position with the Department of Medicine, Yong Loo Lin School of Medicine, National University of Singapore.

Topic: Osteoporosis Liaison Service - Secondary Fracture Prevention

Dr Foo Swee Sen

Dr Foo Swee Sen graduated from National University of Singapore. Since her graduation, she went on to pursue her interest in Geriatric Medicine. She spent a year in Dunedin Hospital, New Zealand under the mentorship of Professor Campbell and his team. She has a special interest in the management and prevention of falls in the elderly and Orthogeriatrics.

Topic: Challenges in Post Fracture Care

Dr K Palaniappan

Dr K Palaniappan is a senior consultant at the Department of Rehabilitation Medicine at Tan Tock Seng Hospital (TTSH). He has set up fracture liaison service in TTSH Rehab Centre to provide secondary fracture prevention to patients admitted with fragility fractures, with focus on weight bearing exercise, bone remodelling, falls prevention and maximizing function. He graduated from National University of Singapore and is an accredited rehabilitation physician and a member of Royal College of Physician (UK). He has completed geriatric rehabilitation fellowship in Ku-Ringgai-Hospital in Sydney, Australia and his areas of interest include stroke and brain injury rehabilitation, fragility fractures management, chronic disease management and falls prevention.

Topic: Challenges in Post Fracture Care (Inpatient and outpatient rehabilitation)