Connect deeply with Tasmanian Aboriginal culture.

Luxuriate in Launceston, then embark on a journey of discovery in north-east Tasmania. Award-winning wukalina Walk is a palawa-owned multiday coastal hiking trip: experience cultural activities and traditional foods amongst enchanting bushland and coastline.

Fly over epic mountains to the rugged west coast, then glide along the Gordon River into pristine protected wilderness.

Soar southward to Hobart for fine waterfront dining. Immerse in historical stories with palawa-led takara nipaluna: a walking tour tracing a route taken by the Aboriginal resistance in 1832. This island is a place to enrich and deepen your cultural understanding.
