Relish adventure and a vibrant food scene in northern Tasmania.

Discover why Launceston is a UNESCO City of Gastronomy: this region yields world-class sparkling wine, farm-fresh produce and distinctive spirits.

Enjoy a night in Australia's third-oldest city, then connect with gourmet producers along the tasting trail. Explore the majestic Cradle Mountain-Lake St Clair National Park and encounter Tasmanian wildlife beneath the stars, then fly to the lush Tamar Valley for cool-climate wines and paddock-to-plate dining.

Spend an evening in Launceston for more foodie bliss, heritage, and culture. If you're wild at heart with adventurous tastebuds, northern Tasmania is for you.
