

Innovative Tax Administration A Strategic Workshop

27-29 March 2023 | Tokyo, Japan

Lamy Mong

Bureau Chief, Tax Policy Bureau, Department of Law, Tax Policy and International Tax Cooperation, General Department of Taxation, Cambodia

Dr. Lamy Mong is Chief of Tax Policy Bureau of General Department of Taxation (GDT), Ministry of Economy and Finance of Cambodia. He has been actively involved in developing and contributing to taxation policies to generate tax revenues, improve tax compliance, promote tax awareness and modernize tax administration. It ranges from the Revenue Mobilization Strategy under the framework of the Public Financial Management Reform of the Royal Government of Cambodia, Cambodia's Industrial Development Plans, GDT Strategic Plans, GDT Risk Assessments and Cash Sector, and laws and regulations of taxes on E-Commerce businesses, to the reassessment of excise tax structure on tobacco, beverage, and cement, the reassessment of property values for the property tax and stamp tax, and related property tax policies. Prior to that, he significantly contributed to the development, negotiations and conclusion of first Cambodia's model and agreements for the avoidance of double taxation. Dr. Mong earned his PhD and a Master's degree in Economics from Kobe University, Japan.

