

Bushra Shafiq

Senior Joint Director

SME, Housing & Sustainable Finance Department

State Bank of Pakistan

An economist by training with a master's degree from the London School of Economics and Political Science, UK as a Chevening Scholar. At present she is working as Sr. Joint Director at State Bank of Pakistan who is responsible for the agenda of sustainable finance and interventions/refinance schemes aimed at exports growth in the country.

She has not only developed but supervised all major COVID related measures especially the distinct refinance schemes (including Shariah compliant versions) of the Central Bank of Pakistan. Have remained actively involved in the very first survey based research report on quantification and profiling of demand on Islamic finance in the country and also been part of survey based research reports of social and financial sustainability of micro finance. Have contributed for various publications of the central bank and also for international Journal, conferences and international reports.

She is also a visiting faculty of Islamic Economic for Institute of Business Administration (IBA), Karachi, Pakistan.

