

Junkyu Lee, Ph.D.

Chief of Finance Sector Group
Sector Advisory Service Division
Sustainable Development and Climate Change
Department, Asian Development Bank

Junkyu Lee is currently serving ADB's financial sector operations as Chief of Finance Sector Group. He is an economist of seasoned policy-making experience and knowledge in financial development and stability, and international economic policies. Since 2013, he has been leading policy and operational discussions on Asia's banking sector stability, NPL resolution and capital market development in ADB. As a former G20 finance advisor, he also has deep policy-making experience of macroprudential policy, capital flows management measures, and financial development policy in the G20 Finance Process, and ASEAN+3 Finance Process.