

Innovative Tax Administration A Strategic Workshop

27-29 March 2023 | Tokyo, Japan

Oki Yasui

Director (Digital Economy), International Operations Division, NTA

Oki Yasui has a wide range of experiences in international tax administration with a focus especially on transfer pricing. He is currently responsible within the National Tax Agency for matters concerning the two-pillar solution. He was a bureau member of Working Party 6 of the Committee on Fiscal Affairs of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD).

Yasui joined the National Tax Agency in 1997 and his recent posts in the Agency include Director (Mutual Agreement Procedures) (2020-2022), Director (International) where he oversaw tax examination cases involving large enterprises' international transactions as well as reviews of advance pricing arrangement applications (2018-2020), Assistant Regional Commissioner in charge of Large Enterprise and Criminal Investigation Department at Takamatsu Regional Taxation Bureau (2017-2018). He was seconded to Centre for Tax Policy and Administration of the OECD from 2010 to 2013 and worked on the project on transfer pricing simplification and safe harbor.

Yasui graduated from Keio University in Tokyo in 1997 and earned Master of Business Taxation from University of Southern California in 2001.

