

Sandra van Putten

NESTRA

Sandra van Putten is a partner at NESTRA and is an expert in logistics and transport and has extensive experience in planning and management. Sandra has more than twenty years of experience in transport and logistics sector and has been delivering projects for national and regional authorities, European Commission and multi-lateral organizations like World Bank, IADB and others. Her specialty is in areas of assessment of logistics infrastructure, such as ports, container handling facilities, inland waterway terminals, logistics parks and related connectivity, institutional and legal development, execution and evaluation of maritime and logistics transport systems, based on an integrated approach containing the elements of infrastructure, market organization, institutional organization, promotion and knowledge exchange. She has experience in assessment across various modes of transport including road, rail, coastal and IWT.

