

2022 Asian Regional Forum on Investment Management of Foreign Exchange Reserves

26 - 27 October 2022 | Singapore

RINI KUSUMASTUTI

Division Head (Deputy Director)
Reserve Management Department,
Non-USD Sovereign, EMLC, and FX Divisions

Current Responsibilities

Managing Non-USD sovereign portfolios, including EUR, AUD, NZD, JPY, EMLC, USD Sukuk, and FX transactions.

Work Experience

Started career in Bank Indonesia from 2000 as bank supervisor in 2000 – 2003 and portfolio manager 2003 – 2013. Currently assigned as Division Head of Non-USD Sovereign portfolios, FX, and EMLC since 2001, was Division Head of Risk Management in 2018 – 2020. Representing Bank Indonesia in several organization, such as IORWG, Central Bank's Risk Managers, IILM.

Education

Master of Business in Accounting, Monash University, Australia: 1998
Bachelor of Accountancy, Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta: 1995
Enterprise Risk Management Certified Professional (ERMCP): 2019
Trainings from central banks, IMF, investment banks, etc.

Rini Kusumastuti is currently assigned as Division Head of Non-USD sovereign portfolios, EMLC, USD Sukuk, and FX transactions. Rini has experienced managing foreign exchange reserve portfolios since 2003, in USD and Non-USD fixed income – including her 3-year terms in London during European sovereign debt crisis managing EUR dan GBP – and also in FX transaction desk. In 2014, she was one of team member assigned to develop independent Risk Management Department in Bank Indonesia. She's involved in several projects such as representing Bank Indonesia in International Operational Risk Working Group, Central Bank's Risk Managers discussion, International Islamic Liquidity Management Working Group, as well as international central bank seminars/workshops.