Allan Pineda

Founder
Apl.De.Ap Foundation International

Apl.de.Ap, born Allan Pineda Lindo in the Philippines, is a founding member of the Grammy-winning hip-hop group The Black Eyed Peas. Known for his musical talent and philanthropic efforts, Apl.de.Ap has made a significant impact both on and off the stage. Overcoming a challenging upbringing in Angeles City, Pampanga, he was adopted by his sponsor and moved to the United States as a teenager, where his music career took off. Beyond his success in the entertainment industry, Apl.de.Ap is deeply committed to giving back to his community. He established the Apl.de.Ap Foundation International to empower disadvantaged youth in the Philippines and around the world, focusing on education, technology, and health initiatives. This foundation reflects his dedication to leveraging his platform for positive change, aiming to provide opportunities for the next generation to thrive.
