

Chris Faint
Head of the Climate Hub Division at the Bank of England

Chris has responsibility for developing and implementing the Bank's strategic approach to climate change across all its policy operations. He has been particularly focused on the PRA's supervisory approach to addressing the financial risks arising from climate change, the development of climate scenarios, and the Bank's climate scenario analysis exercise (the CBES). “