

Jaclyn Yeo

Vice President (Head of Sustainability Reporting), DBS

Jaclyn YEO currently leads the sustainability reporting efforts at DBS Bank and supports the Chief Sustainability Officer on group initiatives. Prior to joining DBS, Jaclyn was a Research Manager at Marsh McLennan, a global professional services firm in the areas of risk, strategy and people. Together with the team, she has published research and thought leadership papers, focusing on climate resilience as an emerging risk challenge.

Jaclyn holds a MPhil (Engineering for Sustainable Development) from the University of Cambridge, and a MEng (Environmental Engineering) from the National University of Singapore.