

ROGER SHOTTON

MANAGING DIRECTOR
LOCAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATES

Roger Shotton has been working on sub-national government issues at policy level and in the field across Africa and Asia for some 30 years, first as senior adviser with the United Nations Capital Development Fund and latterly as consultant for various international agencies (ADB, World Bank, UNDP, UNICEF, SDC). He has most recently been working on fiscal transfer mechanisms and on local government financing, planning and budgeting arrangements in several countries in East Asia (Myanmar, Lao PDR, Cambodia, and Mongolia). Particularly, his work in Mongolia includes ongoing support since 2015 to the Ministry of Finance in setup of a local performance-based funding mechanism and in policy-advisory support for the Local Development Fund grant transfer, an evaluation of the effectiveness of UNICEF's support to better targeting of local service delivery for children, as well as support the preparation of the ADB case study to be discussed at this webinar.
