

Satoru Yamadera

Advisor

Economic Research and Regional Cooperation Department
(ERCD), Asian Development Bank, Manila, Philippines

Mr. Yamadera, who is a national of Japan, has been serving the Secretariat of the Asian Bond Markets Initiative (ABMI) of ASEAN+3 since October 2014.

He has vast experiences in capital market development, banking regulation, payment and settlement systems, fintech, cybersecurity as well as regional financial cooperation.

Currently, he leads the ASEAN+3 Bond Market Forum (ABMF), consisting of more than 100 experts from both public and private sectors in the region, to serve as a common platform to foster standardization and harmonization of the bond markets. He also leads the Cross-border Settlement Infrastructure Forum (CSIF) to create cross-border linkages among the central banks and central securities depositories to increase efficiency and safety of cross-border transactions.

In addition, he supports the ASEAN central banks and working committees as the co-chair of the Steering Committee for Capacity Building Initiatives to Support ASEAN Financial Integration (SCCB).

Mr. Yamadera has over 25 years of professional experience in central banking including research, banking supervision, payment systems, and international financial cooperation at the Bank of Japan. Prior to joining ADB in October 2014, he was Director, Head of International Standardization Group of the Bank of Japan. He served as Secretariat of the ISO TC68 National Mirror Committee of Japan to support various financial services standardization, and represented Japan in various financial service standardization discussions.

Mr. Yamadera obtained his BA in Law, Keio University, Japan; M.Sc in Public Administration and Public Policy from the London School of Economics and Political Science, United Kingdom (1994); and M.Sc in Systems Management from Tsukuba University, Japan (2005).