

2022 Asian Regional Forum on Investment Management of Foreign Exchange Reserves

26 - 27 October 2022 | Singapore

MIN JUNG KIM

Manager

Reserve Management Planning Team, Reserve Management Group
Bank of Korea

Min Jung is in charge of planning reserve management operations and strategies at the Reserve Management Group of the Bank of Korea (BOK). Prior to joining her current Reserve Management Planning Team, she worked as a portfolio manager for the credit portfolio of the BOK's reserve assets.

Since joining the BOK in 2004, she has worked for various departments, including the International Department, the Global Economy Research Division in the Research Department, and the International Affairs Department.

She majored in business administration at Seoul National University for her undergraduate studies. She received her master's in economics from the University of Michigan in 2011, sponsored by the BOK.