

2022 Asian Regional Forum on Investment Management of Foreign Exchange Reserves

26 - 27 October 2022 | Singapore

ARAM SAHAKYAN

Head of Global Markets Division
Central Bank of Armenia

Aram Sahakyan joined Central Bank of Armenia in 2007 as a fixed income portfolio manager. He promoted to head of foreign reserves management team in 2010, is responsible for trade idea generation and execution in global fixed income, money, and FX markets, supervises four portfolio managers and is a member of investment committee of Central Bank of Armenia.

Before joining Central Bank of Armenia, he spent few years as a research analyst for brokerage firm. Prior to that, he worked as an investment consultant in various projects sponsored by the US government.

Aram graduated from Armenian State University of Economics.