

2023 ASIAN REGIONAL FORUM ON INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESERVES

Bali, Indonesia, 25 - 27 October 2023

Ian Clunies-Ross

Head of Investor Relations

Australian Office of Financial Management

Ian Clunies-Ross joined the Australian Office of Financial Management (AOFM) in 2009 to set-up and run the Investor Relations Unit. The role includes responsibility for investor engagement, research and analysis as well as the marketing and promotion of Australian Government Securities (AGS). He is a member of the Executive Group of the AOFM.

Mr. Clunies-Ross is also responsible for setting the Investor Relations strategy for the AOFM. He has a background in securities and derivative sales and relationship and risk management with over 30 years' experience working in financial markets and the public sector.

Prior to the AOFM, he ran the ANZ's financial institutions group as Head, Australian Institutional Investors. He has also worked in financial markets, distribution and sales roles with several international and Australian investment banks.

Mr. Clunies-Ross holds an Economics degree from the University of Adelaide and was a Registered Representative license holder with the Sydney Futures Exchange (now ASX).
