

Innovative Tax Administration A Strategic Workshop

27-29 March 2023 | Tokyo, Japan

Melinda Brown

Senior Tax Advisor, Centre for Tax Policy and Administration, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)

Melinda Brown is a senior advisor at the OECD's Centre for Tax Policy and Administration (CTPA) with over 20 years' experience in international tax, specialising in all aspects of transfer pricing practice, policy and law design. Melinda is a member of the UN Transfer Pricing Subcommittee.

As the head of a team supporting developing country members of the Inclusive Framework, Melinda has worked to assist capacity-constrained countries in addressing Base Erosion and Profit Shifting. Melinda was the main author of the OECD's reports on Developing Countries and the OECD/G20 Inclusive Framework; and on Developing Countries and International Tax, which were presented to G20 Finance Ministers in 2021 and 2022, respectively.

In 2022, Melinda took up a position as a senior tax advisor in the OECD's Jakarta office where she is responsible for co-ordinating the OECD's relationship on tax matters with Indonesia and the Asia-Pacific region more broadly. Her current area of focus involves supporting jurisdictions in the region to participate in and implement the two-pillar solution to address the tax challenges of the digitalisation of the economy.

Before joining the OECD, Melinda was a competent authority for Australia and a senior transfer pricing specialist at the Australian Taxation Office and the Australian Treasury.

