Soma Suzuki

CEO
Spatial Pleasure

Born in Osaka in 1993, Soma Suzuki studied physical engineering at Kyoto University. During his studies, he spent three years living in Australia, Boston and South America. After completing his undergraduate degree, he pursued a master's program in urban spatial analysis at the Institute of Spatial Analysis, University College London (UCL Bartlett School). In May 2019, he founded Spatial Pleasure. Suzuki is particularly interested in evaluating urban externalities and contributes a series of articles titled "Cultivating The CityOS" to Wired Japan.
