AUSTRALIAN CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE FOR POST TRAUMATIC STRESS

PRESENTS THE

GLOBAL ALLIANCE CONFERENCE ON POST-TRAUMATIC STRESS 2019

Lived Experience, Translation & Restorative Care

6-8 NOVEMBER 2019

About the Conference

The Global Alliance Conference on Post Traumatic Stress 2019 aims to showcase the latest research, effective models of care for trauma, the power of collaboration and future directions for wellbeing for veterans, emergency service personnel and their families. Over three days participants will hear from a range of experts, including trauma therapists and a number of global thought leaders, on research, treatment and multidisciplinary models of care. The conference is aimed at leading researchers, clinicians, policy makers in Defence and Veterans Affairs and Mental Health, service providers and lived experience participants. Associate Director of ACEPTS, Karen May, is working closely with sector advisors, including Thought Leader Robert Lippiatt, to build on alliances and shape the content for a thought provoking and impactful gathering.

Attendee benefits

The conference will bring attendees together to:

- Learn about the latest research and therapies to treat and support related issues for Post-Traumatic Stress for veterans, emergency service personnel and their families
- Collaborate and knowledge share
- Create valuable and lasting connections
- Participate in big picture thinking about models of care and how we can improve them
- Build recommendations and a pathway for future research and services.
