

Privacy, Liability & Photography Information

Privacy Policy

In accordance with the requirements of the Australian Privacy Act 2000, AOG complies with such legislation which is designed to protect the rights of the individual to privacy of their information. All information collected with respect to your registration for participation in this Congress will only be used for the purposes of planning, conduct of the event, or communication regarding future events. These details may be made available to parties directly related to the Congress including, but not limited to, AOG, venues, accommodation and travel providers (for the purposes of room/travel bookings and Congress options), key sponsors (subject to strict conditions) and other related parties as deemed necessary.

It is also usual practice to produce a 'Delegate List' of attendees at the Congress, and to include an individual's details in such a list. By completing the registration form, you acknowledge the details supplied by you may be used for these purposes. It is your responsibility to ensure that all information provided to AOG is accurate and kept up to date. To access or update your information, please email AOG on conference@aomevents.com.

Liability

In the event of industrial disruptions or natural disasters, the organising committee and AOG cannot accept responsibility for any financial or other losses incurred by the delegates. IRC and AOG take no responsibility for injury or damage to persons or property occurring during the Congress. All insurance, including medical cover, or expenses incurred in the event of the cancellation of the Congress is the individual delegate's responsibility. Attendees are encouraged to choose a travel insurance policy that includes loss of fees/deposits through cancellation of your participation in the Congress, or through the cancellation of the Congress itself, loss of airfares for any reason, medical expenses, loss or damage to personal property, additional expenses and repatriation should travel arrangements have to be altered. AOG will take no responsibility for any participant failing to take out insurance.

Congress Photography

By attending the Congress, you grant both AOG and IRC the rights to use any recordings whether audio or video and/or any photographs taken at any stage during the Congress for promotional, advertising or reporting purposes at their sole discretion.
